The meeting commenced @ 7.10pm

1. New Business:

- AM has society finances signed over from the previous treasurer. The previous society treasurer possibly making £30 claim to the society funds – pending.
- First film to be shown: Kinsey on October 12th
- DF emailed through committee emails and Facebook, as well as unanswered mobile phone messages; all unresponsive. TW employed as work in replacement with pending continuation on DF's (possible) return.
- The Bunfight stand is to be accompanied by an advertisement, most likely a sign to draw attention to the location of the stand and the society in general. If not sign then sandwich board, or other possible advertisement.
- Minutes approval from previous committee meeting; accepted and approved

2. Website

- Updated to recent events but without the proposed new design at this stage. The design for the updated website has been specified and approved. A 'postcard' flyer has the current/new LGBT design theme which will shortly be applied to the website. The sexual health content of the website /LGBT promotion information may be changed.

3. Bunfight Information

- Promotion of the society to occur through posted information on the committee's purposes and information on its committee, as well as creativity through signs and logos to attract attention. Props such as bubble blowers, as well as the handing out of condoms, leaflets and lube to passers by shall occur in order to promote well being as well as be informative as to the societal values.

4. Correspondence

- Correspondence to the whole society shall be kept in the form of regular emails on Sundays, summarising the previous week's events as well as containing news, events and information deemed relevant. Also, ALL lesbian events are to be verified through central office future.
- The committee shall hold meetings fortnightly (2nd and 4th week of month) on a Monday
- Collaboration from Leighanne's position writing newsletters shall continue indefinitely, subject to any changes or ability to keep in touch with events as well as the necessity of the newsletter
- Nightline queries have been responded to and they are welcome to pick up amended leaflets
- MPP was requested to email Winchester School of Art branch, which currently has no LGB integration with the society and thus the needs of the relevant students may not be being met

5. Stock & Leaflets

- The society has requested more stock from GCHS on relevant STI's, as well as information on smoking, alcohol and drugs. Posters as well as leaflets have been requested.

6. Socials

- Tom Jones is keen to sponsor promotion of Filthy Neon if the society gives out flyers and discounts to its members, and has offered to promote its relevancy.
- The first social 'At the End of The Rainbow' shall occur next week; details have been publicized on Facebook as well as printed on flyers, with a DM coined game 'Pub Supermarket Sweep' after the initial Champagne reception.
- First film night is timetabled for October 8th, and the film to be shown is Kinsey
- The Sexual Health Talk, to occur on the 15th October, shall be followed by a social, with 'sexual health themed attire' prescribed

7. Events

- To occur generally on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of the month
- 'Filthy Neon' on the last Sunday of the month – coming event as a 'Halloween social'?
- Film nights to occur on once a month

8. Outreach

- Possible 1 hour slots on SURGE radio pending
- [Redacted] & [redacted] to attend any of the first 3 societal events for verification
- Free shuttles from The Edge to Neon, offered by them
- More (cabaret) events with the London Hotel?
- Possible restructuring of joint events with University of Winchester, eg. 'Rainbow Winch'

9. Any other business

- General advice for effective promotion of our society at the Bunfight.

The meeting closed at 8.30pm.
